Dear John,

It gives me great pleasure to write a letter of recommendation for a true professional and wonderful person, Ed Reynolds.

During our association with Ed, his calm demeanor, extreme intelligence, analytical focus and deep warmth enabled us to manage what otherwise could have been one of the most difficult life changes one could experience. We were merging our families through a divorce and Ed approached our situation sensitively and sensibly. Ed is a people person and the trust we found in him was evident by his devotion to finding our dream home and managing it with the utmost poise when we challenged him each and every step of the way. It goes without saying that Ed is one of a kind. I could not possibly offer a recommendation that is strong enough in this one letter. Quite frankly, Ed is one of those rare individuals who could succeed at all he attempts and guide those in his presence.

Please contact me directly should you wish to discuss this further.

Very truly yours,
SA
